

RESOURCE 3: DECISION CARDS

YEARS
3-4

A friend offers to give you the answers to an important class test being given tomorrow.

1

A friend gave you a chocolate bar on the way home from school, but the family rule is no chocolate before dinner.

2

Before a game of soccer where you are goalie, your friend asks you to let a goal through so that his/her team can win the game.

3

Your friend is breaking a swing at the local playground and asks you to help.

4

You buy an ice-cream and the store worker gives you an extra $10 note in your change. Do you give it back?

5

A group is being unkind to another student. What do you do?

6

A friend asks you to share your favourite toy/drink/food and you don't really want to.

7

Your grandmother's favourite fruit is growing in a neighbour's yard.

8

You are at a recital or theatre production getting bored and restless.

9

You have a difficult homework task.

10

A classmate you do not like or don't know very well offers to share their pens with you.

11

An older person is standing in the bus as there are no seats left. You are tired after a long day at school.

12

The school bully wants to be your friend and invites you to their birthday party.

13

Your friend convinces you to take a chocolate bar from the shop without paying for it.

14